<sup>1</sup> The Commission is aware of the filings in the AE 615 series and the fact that the briefing cycle for that series is not complete. An ex parte presentation by the Special Trial Counsel representing the Government has been ordered by the Commission to take place on 24 January 2019. This Amended Supplemental Docket Order is issued to give the parties advance notice of additional motions that will be considered by the Commission should the Commission determine it appropriate to consider motions in light of the issues pending in the AE 615 series.
