4. The Commission will receive evidence and hear argument on the following motions during the session.¹
 - a) AE 007I: Government Motion for Public Access to Open Proceedings of This Military Commission via Closed-Circuit Television Transmission;
 - b) AE 118N: Government Motion to Reconsider and Clarify AE 118M Ruling;
 - c) AE 530TTT: Defense Motion for Joint Detention Group Commander to Show Cause and Abate Proceedings Pending Compliance;

g) AE 628B: Mr. al Baluchi's Motion to Compel Witnesses In Support of Mr. al Baluchi's Motion to Suppress; and

h) AE 630A: Mr. Mohammad's Motion for an Extension of Time within Which to Request Production of Witnesses.

5. Counsel should be prepared to argue any other motion for which the briefing cycle has been completed.² If either side believes other issues should be addressed, they may request the Commission amend this order.

7. The time which has transpired since arraignment until the date of the next session (17 June 2019) shall be considered excludable delay in accordance with R.M.C. 707(b)(4)(E)(i) and R.M.C. 707(c). I find that the interests of justice have been served by granting continuances for the resolution of interlocutory and other pretrial issues, and that the resolution of these issues outweighs the interests of the public and the accused in a prompt trial.

So ORDERED this 28th day of May, 2019.
