1. A hearing in this case will take place on 23 – 25 October 2023, in the Expeditionary Legal Complex (ELC), U.S. Naval Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba (NSGB).¹ The hearing will begin at 0900 hours on 23 October 2023.
2. A Rule for Military Commission (R.M.C.) 802 Conference will be held at 1500 on Sunday, 22 October 2023 in Courtroom 2, ELC, NSGB, to discuss the sequence of this hearing and any changes to this Docketing Order.
3. The Accused must be present for the beginning of the session on 23 October 2023.
4. Following the Commission’s accounting for the parties, providing the Accused an advisement concerning his right to be present at hearings of the Commission and other administrative matters, the Commission will provide an opportunity for the parties to conduct voir dire of the Military Judge. In furtherance of this voir dire process, no later than 11 October 2023, any party that desires to voir dire the Military Judge must file its written voir dire questions in a notice to the Commission.²
5. Upon completion of voir dire, the Commission will call for the Accused to enter pleas consistent with the terms of the Offer for Pretrial Agreement (hereinafter “PTA”). The

¹ Any hearing scheduled for 16-20 October 2023 in connection with this Commission is hereby cancelled.

² See Rule for Military Commissions (R.M.C.) 902(d)(2).

Commission will conduct an inquiry into the providence of the Accused's plea. The Commission will also inquire into the terms and conditions of the PTA to ensure there is an agreement between the Convening Authority and the Accused and a shared understanding of the meaning and effect of the terms of the PTA. Not later than 4 October 2023, the Defense will file a written notice of intended plea.

6. Any request to amend this docketing order will be filed as soon as possible but no later than 4 October 2023.³ Any response to such a request will be filed as soon as possible but no later than 7 calendar days following the filing of any request to amend this docketing order. A reply brief is not authorized.

7. In anticipation of the 23 – 25 October 2023 hearing, the Commission requires the following concerning interpreter support:

a. The Government will provide the Commission notice of the status of Commission interpreter support no later than 4 October 2023. This status will include: 1) the number and names of the Malaysian interpreters that will support the Commission, 2) the qualifications of any new interpreter to include their CVs, 3) the location of each interpreter during the hearing if said location is intended to be other than NSGB, and 4) any anticipated issues with the Commission interpreter support for the scheduled hearing. Commission Interpreter's personal information, to include their names and their CVs, will be protected from disclosure and will be provided in attachments which will be filed under seal.

b. The Defense will provide the Commission notice of the status of their interpreter support no later than 4 October 2023. The status will include: 1) notice as to whether the Accused currently has the necessary interpreter support to conduct attorney-client communications, and 2) whether there are any anticipated interpreter support issues for the scheduled hearing.

8. The use of the Remote Hearing Room (RHR) in the National Capital Region for this hearing will be IAW AE 0041.001 (TJ).⁴

9. Unless granted permission to be absent from this hearing or to appear from the RHR, all detailed counsel are expected to be physically present at NSGB.⁵

So ORDERED this 18th day of September 2023.
